

2013 LAILAH

Named for one of Marcelo's grandchildren, Lailah is a late harvest Chardonnay that can best be described as "nectar of the gods." Beautiful golden in color, this dessert wine boasts an outstanding aroma of honey, apples, citrus, walnuts, coconut, vanilla and a hint of peanut butter. The first taste of this full bodied and balanced wine explodes with flavors of butter, hazelnut and caramel. Aged for 60 months in American oak, only 800 bottles were produced.
